

 BASSMA graduated the first of five groups from an intensive training program of twelve sessions held at the Primary Healthcare Center in Chiyah that aimed to enable women to join the workforce fully equipped.